

Creative Fun For Everyone

The Giggle N Grow project has a vacancy for a Session Leader

16hrs week, £11.03 per hour, 1 year contract

Hours between 9.00 - 3.00 (occasionally asked to work out with these hours)

The South Glasgow Childcare Partnership Forum charity is a constituted group of voluntary members with an interest in the provision of children and family services throughout the South Glasgow area. The Forum also runs the Giggle N Grow project.

Giggle N Grow is an early intervention outreach project working with families of pre five children within the Glasgow area. Designed to support families by the promotion of early literacy, music and movement, shared play, improved parenting skills and early intervention techniques. We believe that every child should have access to rich learning experiences without the barrier of cost, that is why all our services are free to families.

Would you like to be part of our fun, enthusiastic Team delivering interactive session of storytelling, singing, music and movement and shared play to families?
